Answers for Lok & Zib.

1. Avoid “absolutes” – inevitably, all, never, every case
   Answer is D.

2. A & B cannot both be true, D is out.
   B & C cannot both be true, E is out.
   A & C are saying the same thing, both are out.
   Answer is B.

3. The question asks for the “best known” name, question # 6 refers to Smith’s work with memory. Answer is B.

4. The reference to KUGS is unimportant, the question is really asking for a western state, which means Oregon is the only correct answer.
   Answer is A.

5. A & C say the same thing, cancel both.
   B & D say the same thing, cancel both.
   Answer is E.

6. Only answer C addresses the question.
   Answer is C.

7. Answer A talks about eye movement & dreaming (off topic)
   Answer C & E say the same thing, cancel them out.
   Answer D uses “every” as an absolute condition.
   Answer is B.

Adapted from Morris Holland’s "Multiple Choice" Test